

Learning Outcome	Criterion	30 - 39	40 - 49	50 - 59	60 - 69	70 - 100
Operate successfully as part of a development team	Take part in the preparation and presentation of your group's work	Show a limited set of requirements or provide a poor an ineffective presentation	Show the requirements and design effectively	Show evidence of analysis in gathering the requirements	Show that the group has worked both independently and together to produce the requirements and design	Show that the group has successfully integrated individual work as part of a coherent whole
Present the group's work in both written and verbal forms	Verbally and visually present your group's requirements and design	Evidence of poor structure and design of presentation	Show requirements and design using an effective structure for the presentation	Give an overview of the design along with appropriate levels of detail for each part	Relate the design to the requirements	Justify the design using the requirements and current best practices
Employ effective group skills, and reflect upon group processes	Show how your group has worked together to produce the requirements and design	Partial or incomplete presentation of group processes	Relate the group processes	Show how the group processes could be improved	Reflect upon the group dynamics, showing both positive and negative points	Generalise from your experiences to make changes for your future working