

Learning Outcome	Criterion	30 - 39	40 - 49	50 - 59	60 - 69	70 - 100
Operate successfully as part of a development team	Take part in a team process which produces a deliverable product	Produce a partial or incomplete product	Produce a deliverable	Show how the process related to the product	Discuss the advantages and disadvantages of the group's processes	Reflect upon the group process, discussing potential improvements
Develop an artefact in their discipline area	Produce an artefact which fulfils the requirements and design	Unable to demonstrate fully the artefact has appropriate functionality	Demonstrate that the artefact has appropriate functionality	Pay attention to the non-functional requirements	Show that the artefact is of acceptable quality	Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of the discipline area and show how the artefacts produced are situated within it
Present the group's work in both written and verbal forms	Document the artefact	Produce poor or incomplete documentation relating to produced artefact	Show how the artefacts produced fulfil the requirements	Document and justify the quality attributes of the artefacts	Critically reflect on the product, its functional and non-functional requirements	Produce a high-quality report with well-justified analysis of the artefact