

Learning Outcome	Criterion	30 - 39	40 - 49	50 - 59	60 - 69	70 - 100
Operate successfully as part of a development team	Reflect on and evaluate your experiences as a team member	Provide a weak or partial discussion on individual contribution	Describe your individual contribution	Show how your contribution was integrated into the completed deliverable	Evaluate the way that the group integrated the various individual contributions	Give a strong, critical reflection of the group's interactions, including your own activities.
Use time management strategies in managing a project	Reflect on and evaluate your group's time management and planning	Provide a partial description of the team's experiences in respect of your own individual contribution	Describe the team's experiences, with reference to your individual contribution	Evaluate the group's working, identifying the strong and weak points of the processes used	Reflect upon the group's working, giving examples of improvements that could have been made	Give a sound and objective evaluation of the group's processes, showing how they had an impact on the quality of the components developed for delivery